(Hong Kong, 17 August 2018) – Made in HK Restaurant has always been a place for quality Hong Kong style Western cuisine and refined dishes. As an advocate for preserving the local dining culture and valuable memories of Hongkongers, Made in HK is opening its second outlet in Mong Kok to spread the word! The Grand Opening of the new shop on 8th floor of Langham Place will be on 23 August, bringing in a series of Opening Events, exclusive Fusion Style menu for Langham Place branch and more local delights!

Free Customized Neon Light Plate & “HK Delicacies” Post Card

Since the 1950s, the use of neon lights by Hong Kong restaurants and shops were gaining popularity. The dazzling noble gas signs have become an essential part of Hong Kong’s cityscape. Unfortunately, the fragile neon signs have been slowly replaced by more energy efficient and versatile LED signs in recent years. However, just like many classic local food, the disappearing neon signs embodied the uniqueness of Hong Kong which we should preserve. Therefore, Made in HK (Langham Place) will organize the Free Customized Neon Light Plate and “HK Delicacies” Post Card opening events to remind you of the style that is genuinely “Made in HK”.

Chili Stir-fried Wagyu Beef Cube ($118)

Zero Yu, Executive Chef of Made in HK, has crafted 4 exclusive items to surprise diners in Mong Kok! Chili Stir-fried Wagyu Beef Cube ($118) is a crispy and spicy combination of Wagyu beef from Kagoshima and the chili stir-fry method! The diced beef is first deep-fried, then stir-fried with chili and chopped garlic to become a golden snack! If you dare for some numbing hot sensation, dip into the homemade spicy mayonnaise sauce!

The accompanying fermented bean curd potato salad is also a must-try!

Mapo Tofu Nachos ($78)

Spicy Tiger Prawn Noodles with Bacon ($108)

Who says Mapo Tofu cannot be paired with nachos? Our culinary team has fused the two into the appetizing Mapo Tofu Nachos ($78)! The colourful nachos baked with mozzarella cheese are complemented by the Chinese classic tofu dish. The rich sauce and silky tofu can bring more texture and flavour on the palate than any ordinary nachos! Spicy Tiger Prawn Noodles with Bacon ($108) is another example of "East meets West", which thick noodles and Sichuan spicy sauce are cooked in a pasta way. Sautéed with tiger prawns, bacon strips, onion and tomato paste, the hearty thick noodles can warm Hongkongers with a local touch.

Coffee & Milk Tea Bottle Flower ($78)

Do not miss our eye-catching dessert Coffee & Milk Tea Bottle Flower ($78) in limited supply every day! The white chocolate crust coloured in pink transformed the cake into a blossoming flower with curly petals.
